

Engage McCartney experts to undertake a complete corporate Digital Analysis and Appraisal of your online real-estate. After all, you can have the best web site in the world, but if no one can find it, the name expires or the server goes down - it's a VERY costly exercise. Here are some every day scenarios you should consider:

Do you know the answers to these questions?

When do they expire?
What domain names do you / your clients own?

Who are the registrar services?
Who has the passwords?

Are there trademarks associated with the domains and services?

What are the trademark registration numbers and dates?

You have an attorney. You have a CPA.
In this day and age, you need to add a Digital Concierge to your team.
With 17 years experience, you'll be in good hands.

Ask McCartney Business Services to open your account and protect or establish your online real-estate today.
